

TROOP 850 NEWS

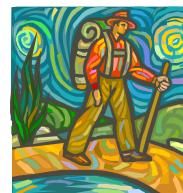

Vol. 10, Issue 7

St. Ignatius Press

September, 2004

guests if $2 per person, plus we ask that you bring a side dish or dessert to share. Also, we need a head count for all dinner guests by our meeting that Tuesday, September 21. A permission slip for Scouts is enclosed.

Attention Cavers!

For all those who will be exploring the caves of Kentucky next weekend, please note that:

- ♦It is very important to attend the August 24 meeting as that is when we will be making "pigs" (cave packs) necessary for the trip.

- ♦We plan to attend Sunday Mass at a local church -- everyone should bring a Class A uniform to wear to church and a dollar for the collection.

October Campout -- PETERLOON!!

The all-Dan Beard Council jamboree known as Peterloon will take place October 15 -- 17 at Camp Craig, and of course Troop 850 will be there, along with several thousand other Scouts. This year, everyone attending will receive both a special patch and a commemorative t-shirt. Exhibitors include Bass Pro Shop and many others, and there will be the usual patrol competitions and an arena show/campfire Saturday night. A permission slip is enclosed.

September Campout

Now that the work on St. I's athletic fields is complete, we plan to repeat a very popular campout from years past, the Troop 850 Camporee on the Ball Fields, September 24 -- 26. Our senior Scouts are planning some exciting patrol competition events, and we'll be having a family dinner Saturday at 6:00PM -- parents, grandparents and siblings are welcome to join us for LaRosa's pizza. The cost for

High Adventure 2005

In our usual High Adventure rotation, we expect to plan a backpacking trip somewhere in the western mountains. First, though, we need to get an idea of who is interested. It will be open to Scouts at least 13 years of age and of at least First Class rank by the time we go, which will be in the second half of June. Right now, we need a general indication of interest, with commitments by mid-January. Please see Mr. Hertlein, or drop him an e-mail at chas@hertlein.cc if you think you might like to go.

Court of Honor

Parents, please plan to attend our end-of-summer Court of Honor September 28. This is always our biggest Court of Honor, with many achievements to recognize after all the summer activities. We hope to see you there.

Back to School!!

